South African symbol of brighter banking...

Soaring into the future from foundations that go deep into our colourful past. Things look bright for South Africa's economic growth. Each decade sees growth figures in excess of expectations — the young giant is growing fast. Growth that the Standard Bank is proud to be part of, proud to be helping and has been helping since 1862.

Look to your future through brighter banking — it's a Standard practice.

You can bank on the Standard

V.I.P. (JNR.) going to school.

Shell is there to help him. Today perhaps he'll be learning from maps or films or film strips or from many other teaching aids supplied by Shell to schools everywhere. At universities, too, Shell plays its part. Every year, everyone of the eight South African universities receives a financial contribution from Shell and every year Shell awards a scholarship for post-graduate studies overseas. In every way Shell helps Education to turn the V.I.P. Jnrs. into V.I.P. Snrs.. Another example of Shell in the life of South Africa.

Basics Anonymous

That celebrated writer, Anon, has nothing on us when it comes to nameless authorship. Although AE&CI is the largest organisation of its kind in the country, most of the things we make are not branded with our name and hardly any of them, apart from the Kynoch-Capex agricultural products, are sold in the shops. Yet without those things there would be practically nothing in the shops to buy. We make basic chemicals. The public doesn't normally see them; it sees only the results they produce. But that is all right with us. Results are what our customers want. And as nearly everything anybody uses depends somewhere or other on basic chemicals of the kind A E & C I produces we are well content to be basically anonymous.

How to carry cash.

Conveniently.

BARCLAYCARD provides ready money without the inconvenience of carrying cash or a cheque book. With BARCLAYCARD you can buy virtually anything anywhere, from the family groceries to petrol, clothing and jewellery. Simply show your BARCLAYCARD, sign a sales voucher, and twenty-five days after the date of your monthly BARCLAYCARD statement you pay just one bill for everything you've bought! While BARCLAYCARD is mainly an all-purpose family credit card, it can also be used for travel and entertainment not only in South Africa but also in the United Kingdom, the United States of America and in many other countries. It costs nothing to get a BARCLAYCARD, and remember, you don't have to be a Barclays customer to be a cardholder. For further details, see your nearest BARCLAYS BANK Manager, or write to BARCLAYCARD Centre, P.O. Box 1420, Johannesburg.

opportunity of a lifetime

The OK Bazaars is the largest retail organisation in South Africa, employing over 16,000 people of all races. It has more than 100 branches in existence and many more in the planning stage in South Africa and Rhodesia.

It offers a wide field of employment for school leavers and university graduates, which includes branch managers, lawyers, industrial and clinical psychologists, nurses, staff trainers and personnel officers, accountants, architects, draughtsmen, electrical engineers, caterers, display artists—as well as thousands of selling and clerical staff. Selected male matriculants and graduates are given a unique five months training course to prepare them for managerial appointments, decided entirely by merit based on performance and restricted only by the limits of the capabilities of those seeking promotion. Sales and clerical staff are also trained.

Many staff services of practical and financial value are provided—Pension and Medical Aid Funds for males and females—Canteens offering wholesome meals at low cost—special Sick Leave facilities—and the accumulation of Long Leave—Plus Staff Discounts on all purchases made in the stores.

School leavers and graduates may be recommended with confidence to make further enquiries regarding the many opportunities in this large and expanding company. Those interested in obtaining details should be referred to:

The 10·times·a·term teaching aids, written to strict educational standards . . . and with all the topicality and interest of a weekly paper

EVERYWEEK for 10–12 year olds. A classroom window on the world. Presents news and topics of the moment in the simple, direct way which most appeals to the children. Acts as the perfect springboard for reading, creative writing and other activities in and out of school.

READ for 7–9 year olds. Sets out to help the children develop their basic reading skills, and give them the incentive to increase their vocabulary, contribute fully to classroom discussion and improve the clarity and presentation of their written work.

MY NEWS for 4–6 year olds. The first weekly paper for children who can't yet read. Tested and welcomed by teachers in reception classes, nursery schools and playgroups as a means of smoothing the transition from home to school.

With every issue comes its companion Teacher Bulletin, filled with helpful teaching ideas.

Subscription rates (UK prices): one term (10 issues) 4s; two terms (20 issues) 8s; three terms (30 issues) 12s. Minimum order: 10 copies of each issue.

Is programmed learning your problem?

With the adaptable Bingley Tutor your pupils are able to learn and work at their own pace, they control the machine themselves, saving your time for individual tuition.
Each Bingley Tutor comes complete with specimen programme, instructions, blank programme and answer roll.
There is an extensive range of available programmes, and your own questions may easily be adapted to the BINGLEY TUTOR.

It all adds up ...to Colour Factor!

Take 308 wood sections, coloured according to strict mathematical principles, 1 c.c. square cut into lengths from 1—12 c.m., and you have an attractive teaching aid which helps infants to grasp the basic number range — literally.
COLOUR FACTOR.
Through this simple combination of colour and size, the child can absorb elementary mathematics by touch and sight.
The relationship of numbers to one another becomes clear when he is able to fit the blocks together in significant patterns and shapes.

Westminster Maths

A new five-book course which provides a middle-of-the-road approach between a purely traditional and a purely modern study in unified fashion. Particular attention has been paid to maintaining clear, step-by-step presentation, and the study is geared to encourage and stimulate both specialist and non-specialist mathematician.

Unit One, after four years' testing in use throughout all streams of the authors' school, is now ready, and its companion books of Notes and Answers will be available shortly.

Coming soon: Trend

A brilliant new series from Australia aimed at backward or reluctant readers in their early teens. East book presents a story centred on the world of the teenagers themselves — coffee bars, crowds of friends, exciting adventures. Teachers in England have already found that Trend are the first books that their pupils have actually read with enjoyment. Trend books look like ordinary paperbacks: and with their full-colour covers and splendid modern illustrations (black and white and colour) they will be found irresistible. The first titles are:

The Dark House
Robbie
Coffee at Charlie's
Crash Landing
Old Bootleg
Some Trannie That!
Gaye Lizzie
Watcher on the Wharf
Bindi-Eye
Snow at Tataru
A Real Hero

Legend and Drama

is a boon to English teachers who are looking for something between play-reading, which rarely generates dramatic life, and free drama, which so often fizzles out after a promising start. Legend and Drama is a collection of myths and folk tales from all over the world, chosen for their dramatic qualities. Each story is followed by directions for acting the play in small groups and by a blow-by-blow outline of the action. Either mime or speech can be used. The books are suitable for all pupils, all of whom will also enjoy the vivid, atmospheric illustrations.

Unscripted Drama, the teachers' pamphlet makes detailed suggestions for using the books and for conducting entertaining and creative lessons.

"I used these when I was a student . . ." is a remark we often hear from teachers we meet.

It pleases but never surprises us for our 'NOTES ON CHOSEN ENGLISH TEXTS' series is more than 30 years old. We are not seeking veneration. Our panel of editors, all experienced teachers and examiners, worry as much about revising old titles as they do about planning new ones. All titles are kept up-to-date for modern examination requirements. They are ideal for private study.

English Language examinations too have changed and now the emphasis is on communcation. Bearing in mind that perfection can only be approached through practice, we have added to our 'Test Papers' series new titles that provide these vital exercises.

As well as 'Notes' and 'Test Papers' we publish books on English Language, History, Geography, etc., an entertaining series of French Readers (for secondary schools) and two new series of Practical Maths (for junior schools).

Our publications can be obtained from leading booksellers in South Africa, but if you have difficulty write direct to us and let us know the name of your bookseller.

ENGLISH TEACHING EXTRACTS R1.00

Donn Byrne

This book has been written for teachers and students of English as a foreign language in training colleges and on coureses. It consists of 40 articles and extracts from British and American sources, on English Language Teaching. The articles are drawn from the works of recognised experts in this field and deal with many aspects of teaching techniques. Each extract is followed by questions and points for discussion designed to provoke debate and discussion on the subject in question.

PROGRAMMED LEARNING AND THE LANGUAGE TEACHER R2.20

A. P. R. Howatt

A clear introduction to programmed learning and an examination of its relevance to, and practical application in, the teaching of languages. Particular attention is paid to the actual construction of programmes, the examples and models in this case being drawn from the teaching of English as a foreign language.

Transvaal Teachers' Association

(Founded 1904)

WHAT THE T.T.A. STANDS FOR:

(1) Progressive Education — the Education Committee studies all the latest movements in education, and organises courses when necessary.

(2) Professional Responsibility — the T.T.A. works towards an enhanced status for the profession, including a Professional Register.

(3) Liberal outlook in education — our interests go beyond a purely narrow education. We oppose reactionary policies.

(4) Improved conditions of service — this embraces salaries, leave privileges, pensions, schools, etc.

The T.T.A. is NOT a sectional association. It caters for all branches of the profession. College of education lecturers; high school, primary school, and married women teachers; teachers in private schools and from both language groups are all eligible for membership.

WHAT THE T.T.A. OFFERS YOU:

(1) The services of a full-time General Secretary.

(2) Easy approach to the Education Department with your difficulties.

(3) Legal defence in matters of professional interest—a strong Fund is available when needed.

(4) A Benevolent Fund to help members in cases of distress, illness or sudden emergency.

(5) A permanent headquarters at 38 Honey Street, Berea, Johannesburg.

(6) The "Transvaal Educational News" — official organ of the Association and a forum of modern educational thought.

LIBERTY LIFE
LANGUAGE CENTRE

At home...at school... Philips educational aids get results!

THE PHILIPS HOME STUDY LANGUAGE SET is one of the most versatile study aids you can get! Students can use it to learn a language, memorise a poem, tape an important lecture — or use it as a normal twin-track cassette recorder, for music (musicassettes) recording from the radio etc. It is fully transistorised and battery operated, which means you can use it anywhere. The Philips Home Study Language Set consists of a Home Study Recorder and a Headset (headphones/microphone combination). The lesson is heard on one track and the answers recorded on the other. On play-back the student can listen to both tracks simultaneously and repeat the lesson if he is not satisfied. Cassette tape recordings of Afrikaans, English, German, French and other language courses are available from Education Dept., S.A. Philips.

PHILIPS OVERHEAD PROJECTOR

Ideal for use in classrooms or lecture halls, this modern projector is both inexpensive and easy to run. The teacher can sit and, without moving from his desk, project the image on to the screen behind him. While doing this, he can write on any transparency with a felt pen or grease pencil, and emphasize with a pointer. Facing his audience as he does, it is also very easy for him to direct the lesson.
