

https://dspace.org/

Rethinking Ex Post Facto Environmental Authorisation in South Africa Insights from 2022 NEMA Amendment

Jean-Claude Ashukem

https://hdl.handle.net/10539/40188
SCIELO SA

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

DE JURE LAW JOURNAL

VOLUME 57 2024

Articles

The best interests of the child and the right of interested third parties to parental responsibilities and rights: RC v HSC 2023 4 SA 231 (GJ)
Mildred Bekink 1

Powers of the Registrar of the Health Professions Council to institute investigations under the Health Professions Act 56 of 1974
MA Kwinda
M Labuschaigne
M Slabbert 17

Appraising the regulatory framework of the new South African Deposit Insurance System
Matsietso Agnes Matasane 24

Secondary strikes and their proportional impact on both the primary and secondary employer
ME Manamela 46

"Reflecting back" on public participation in the judicial appointment of the South African Chief Justice?
Nomthandazo Ntlama-Makhanya 58

Re-thinking Ex Post Facto Environmental Authorisation in South Africa: Insights from 2022 NEMA Amendment
Jean-Claude N. Ashukem 79