Figure 5.6: An example of a well developed lateral basal articular facet of the first metatarsal suggesting an associated increased first inter-metatarsal angle.