Fig. 2.27: (a) Photograph of a shale unit in the northern part of the collar (location 9, see Appendix, No. 6), displaying an eastward-dipping fault plane (solid line) and an asymmetric lens of shale. (b) Close-up of the asymmetric lens, indicating a movement of the hanging wall to the west. For scale information in (a) and (b), length of hammer ca. 30cm.