Umamkhulu Place

Children need a multitude of social activities to discover and introduce them to society and their community. This is where the craft centre, library, day care, play grounds and communal dining hall play an important role. It is in these places that the children of Umamkhulu’s place meet with the children of the community and the adult members of the community who help run the activities and who care for the CVC in the homes.