Acknowledgements

I would like to acknowledge the following people:

- Professor Raymond Basson, without who's immense support, supervision and expertise knowledge in the field of evaluation, this study would have been impossible to complete, let alone undertake.
- The staff in the Department of Prosthodontics, SOHS, University of the Witwatersrand for allowing me to observe how they teach and being available to me at all times.
- The final year dental students who were honest with their answers during the interviews.
- Finally, the general support and encouragement of family, friends and colleagues was greatly appreciated.
