the journal of education for southern africa

HIGHLIGHT YOUR TRIP TO EUROPE WITH THE ENCHANTING MAGIC OF THE

French Riviera

Whichever way you fly to Europe – enjoy the hospitable glamour of the sparkling French Riviera. On your way north travel U.A.T. DC-8 Jetlines and let the French Riviera be your introduction to the delights that Europe holds. Or at the end of your trip to Europe relax awhile on the Riviera before heading home. It makes no difference to your fare. Consult your travel agent.

SYMPOSIUM

A Journal of Education for Southern Africa 1962–3

CONTRIBUTIONS

may be submitted with a view to publication. They should be addressed to

The Editor,
Symposium,
P.O. Box 1013,
Johannesburg.

It is policy to require support for assertions and evidence for criticism. Ideas or facts rather than people should be subjected to criticism.
The Editorial Board expresses itself only in editorial comment. Contributors have a right to private and opposed views, for which the Board is not responsible. We believe in giving hospitality to all points of view that are well presented.
We welcome contributions from Afrikaans educationists, as from other non-English-speaking peoples in Southern Africa, providing their work is submitted in, or may be translated into English, which is the medium of this Journal.

SYMPOSIUM

is edited by a Board consisting of:

R. F. Weaver, Esq., Chairman.
Dr. Harold Holmes.
Leslie Proctor, Esq.
W. G. Barnett, Esq.
A. Hartley, Esq. (Distribution).
Brian Rose, Esq., Editor.
and
V. L. Allen, Esq. is the Treasurer.

SYMPOSIUM

offers a platform for the intelligent and open discussion of all matters affecting education, in the belief that free debate will foster the type of individual accustomed to decision and hence capable of adapting himself to the future and promoting the best interests of his community.

SYMPOSIUM

is an independent Journal enjoying the distinguished patronage of:

The Vice-Chancellor of the University of the Witwatersrand.

The Director of Education in the Transvaal.

The Rector of the Johannesburg College of Education.

The Professors of Education at the Universities of Natal and Cape Town.

SYMPOSIUM

considers contributions from all who are engaged in teaching, whether they work in Universities, State Schools, Private Schools or Religious Institutions. It seeks to serve the people of Southern Africa, including the Protectorates.

SYMPOSIUM

is one of the activities of The Symposium Group, an association of educationists in schools, colleges, universities, commerce, industry, research institutions and similar bodies, which seeks to stimulate professionally and publicly an informed interest in educational problems.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Symposium Group is grateful to the following Groups or Bodies for their co-operation, encouragement or help:

The British Council, for practical co-operation with contributions;

The City Council of Johannesburg, for support both moral and material.

...AND WE'RE LOOKING FOR THEM AMONG THOSE LEAVING SCHOOL THIS YEAR

Opportunities are yours for the taking at Barclays Bank. The variety of work is enormous, the scope unlimited. We're looking now for young people with enthusiasm and a sense of responsibility who will one day take the place of the highly paid senior officials who retire each year. We've got the training facilities – all we want is the material for training. If you have the qualities we're looking for, pay a visit to your nearest Barclays Branch Manager, or write to our Staff Department, P.O. Box 1153, Johannesburg, or P.O.Box 4, Cape Town.
