‘Visions of Land in the Poetry of Chenjerai Hove and Musaemura Zimunya’

Rangarirayi Mapanzure

A research report submitted to the Faculty of Humanities, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, in partial fulfilment of the requirements of the degree of Master of Arts.

DECLARATION

I declare that this research report is my own unaided work. It is submitted for the degree of Master of Arts at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg. It has not been submitted before for any other degree or examination at any other university.

(Name of candidate)

_____ day of _____, 2013

DEDICATION

To my father, Cornius Dzingi Mapanzure and my mother, their daughter-in-law, Gladys Mapanzure, and their grandsons, Kudzai and Tafara Mapanzure.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is unlikely that this project and my studies as a whole would have been possible without the encouragement and unstinting support of the so many who were a part of it from the beginning to the end.

I wish to thank Professor Bheki Peterson and the whole department of African Literature at the University of the Witwatersrand for the enriching experience. A word of gratitude also to Mrs Merle Govind for always being ready to assist, all my friends and colleagues at St Joseph's High School, Mutare and my Wits classmates in 2012: Boitsheko Thwane, Uni Dyer, Temba Moyake, Anna Kim and Zama Dube.

Special thanks to my supervisor Professor James Ogude for his unusual patience and for going beyond the call of duty to see me through the whole exercise. I will always be grateful. Asante Sana.

To Gladys, my wife: you made this possible.
