

https://dspace.org/

Audit of feeding practices in the neonatal wards at the Charlotte Maxeke Johannesburg academic hospital

Sepeng, Letlhogonolo

2016-03-14
http://hdl.handle.net/10539/20076

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

Corrections required for MMED research report

1. Page 7: under aim ‘for babies’ has been deleted
2. Page 7: the sentence has been corrected
3. The heading has been moved to the top
4. Page 10. line 13: grammatical error has been corrected
5. Page 11.line2: space inserted
6. Page 11. line 4:corrected
7. Page 11.line 14: corrected
8. Explanation provided
9. Typos have been noted and corrected
10. Page 13.line 16: corrected
11. Page 13.line 17: corrected
12. Explanation provided
13. Page 15: the number of those excluded has been provided, criteria used to exclude was those infants transferred in or back to their hospital of origin, those infants admitted to the NICU (although specific reasons were not looked at), those infants with incomplete data and those that demised before discharge from the unit.
14. Definition provided
15. Feeds provided during the 72 hours were not looked at, only feeds provided at the time of discharge
16. Page 15.line 10: corrected
17. Page 15: uniformity has been ensured
18. The numbers have been revised: an overlook made
19. The LGA group was not looked at
20. Page 16:uniformity has been ensured
21. Page 16:birth asphyxia has been added
22. Page 18: text has moved to the top of the page
23. Page 18:corrected
24. Page 18.line7: birth asphyxia has been added to the table
25. Page 18.line 19: no this demographic was not collected
26. Page 18.line 25: corrected
27. Page 19.line1:word has been corrected
28. Page 19.line7: space has been provided
29. Page 20:references have moved to the top of the page
30. Adjustments have been made

31. Table has been moved to the top
32. Heading has been moved
33. Numbers and percentages in the abstract have been changed