

https://dspace.org/

The role of the principal as an instructional leader in creating a quality learning environment.

Kau, Cleopas Kokane

2009-09-03T07:37:53Z
http://hdl.handle.net/10539/7177

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Pages

Title……i
Abstract……..ii
Declaration……..iii
Dedication……...iv
Acknowledgement …… v
Table of Contents …… .vi
List of Abbreviations……..vii
List of Tables …….viii

CHAPTER 1 DESCRIPTION OF THE STUDY

1.1 Introduction……..1
1.2 Objectives of the study…….3
1.3 Theoretical Framework……6
1.3.1 Shared Instructional Leadership……...8
1.4 Conclusion……...10

CHAPTER 2 LITERATURE REVIEW

2.1 Introduction……12
2.2 Conceptualisation of educational leadership……13
2.3 Conceptualising Instructional Leadership……14
a) Defining the school's mission……..15
b) Managing the instructional programme…… 15
c) Promoting a school learning climate ……..…16
2.4 Research Findings on Instructional Leadership …….....16

2.5 Limitations……18
2.6 Instructional leadership and school achievement ……19
2.7 Conclusion ……...26

CHAPTER 3 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

3.1 Introduction ……29
3.2 Case Study Design …….…….....29
3.3 Research Protocol ……..30
3.4 Research Questions ……31
3.5 In-depth Interview ……..32
3.6 Questionnaires……33
3.6.1 Use of a Questionnaire …….....33
3.6.2 Designing of a Questionnaire ……34
3.6.3 Administration of a Questionnaire ……..34
3.7 Participant Observation ……35
3.8 Limitations ……36

CHAPTER 4 PRESENTATION, ANALYSES AND INTERPRETATION OF DATA

4.1 Introductory background …….....37
4.2 Description of Participant …….....38
4.2.1 Principals and Head of Departments …….....38
4.2.2 Educators ……..38
4.3 How the principal defines and sets the school goals ……...39
4.4 Creating collegial relationships with and among educators …….....40
4.5 Supervising and evaluating educators ……..41
4.6 Perceptions about Instructional Leadership ……44
4.7 Research Findings …….....50
4.7.1 Introduction ……..50

4.7.2 The Socio-economic conditions ……...50
4.7.3 Strong parent and community support……..52
(i) Parents should ensure that children come to school prepared to learn.....52
(ii)The community provides financial and material support to the school ...54
(iii) Communication between the school and parents is frequent …….55
(iv) The community has a meaningful role in school governance ……56
(v) Community members and parents assist with instruction ……...57
4.7.4 Working with and for the community ……..58
4.7.5 Conclusion ……...60
4.8 The school's organogram ……61
4.8.1 The school's status ……62
4.8.2 The School Governing Body ……63
4.8.3 Learner representation ……...65
4.8.4 The school committees ……66
4.8.5 Educator confidence ……67
4.9 Staff Development at the school ……68
4.9.1 Introduction ……..68
4.9.2 Time and money ……..69
4.9.3 Staff meetings ……..70
4.9.4 Morning consultations ……71
4.9.5 Management meetings ……73
4.9.6 Departmental Work Sessions ……...74
4.9.7 Class visits and observations ……75
4.9.8 Organisation of Staff Development ……..78
4.9.9 Standing Committees ……79
4.9.10 Extended Classes ……....80
4.9.11 Conclusion ……..82

CHAPTER 5 CONCLUSION, IMPLICATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FUTURE RESEARCH

5.1 Conclusion ……84
5.2 Implications for practice ……...86
5.3 Conclusion ……88
5.4 Recommendation for implementation in school …..……...90
5.4.1 A school-focused staff development programme ……..…90
5.4.2 Designing a policy ……91
5.4.3 Learner and parental involvement ……93
5.4.4 Group learning ……...93
5.4.5 Induction ……95
5.4.6 Collaborative School Management ……...96
5.4.7 Conclusion ……....97
5.5 Recommendation for further research …….....97

References……. 98

Appendices ……... 103

Appendix 1: Information Letter ……..….. 104
Appendix 2: Consent Form ……..…….. 105
Appendix 3: Interview Questions and Area of focus in the research …….... 106
Appendix 4: A transcribed interview with the Principal …...…… .111
Appendix 5: Questionnaire schedule for school principals and H.O.Ds ……...117
Appendix 6: Questionnaire schedule for educators ……..…. 128