• Think about these questions for other emotions on this page.

Fine and gross motor practice, music appreciation, creativity.

Make a Guitar

Sibu saw a man playing a guitar in the park. Some of us can hear music and some of us can feel the rhythm. Now let's make a guitar for you to play.

What you need:

- 1 strong corrugated cardboard box
- a few large elastic bands

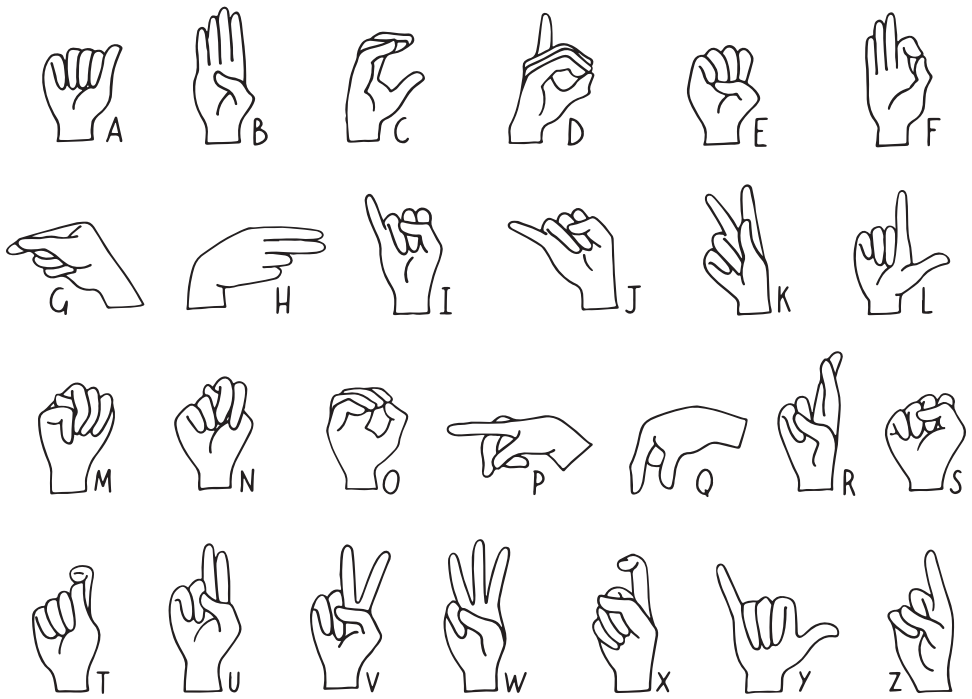

Method:

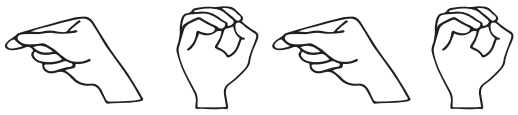

- Stretch the elastics over the box. Roll them down so that they are evenly spread.
- Have fun playing the elastics that are the strings of your guitar, and feel the vibrations on the box.

Finger Spelling

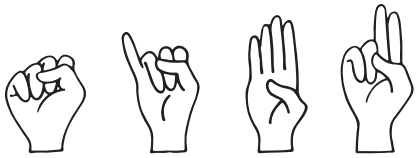

Mama spelled Aunty Linda's name with fingerspelling. Then Sibu later showed his new friend James how to spell his name. Use the SASL alphabet to write the names fingerspelled below.

SASL Alphabet

1.

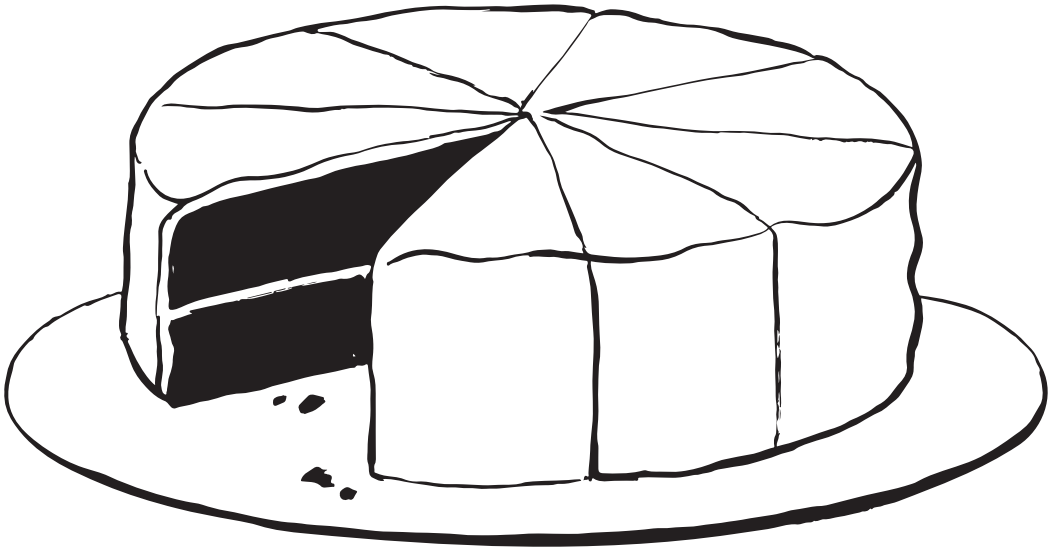

2.

3.

7. There are so many different careers. What would you like to be when you grow up?

Eye tracking, vocabulary building, plural, reading, crossing midline, hand-eye co-ordination.

One or Many

In this story we read examples of plurals. Plural means more than one. Sometimes to make a plural, we add 's' to the word.
eg: samosa (1) > samosas (2 or more)

Sometimes to make a plural we change the spelling:
eg: scarf (1) > scarves (2 or more)

Match the words from the story with their plural by drawing a line from one to the other.

	single	plural
	school	scarves
	window	taxis
	scarf	holidays
	taxi	windows
	holiday	schools

Visual discrimination, pattern, line, shape, following instructions, comparison, eye tracking.

Spot the Difference

Sibu goes to visit his mom in the city for the holidays. Look at the 2 pictures below and spot 5 differences.
