

SYMPOSIUM

A journal of education for Southern Africa

1973/74

One Rand

Steele '72

SYMPOSIUM

A journal of Education for Southern Africa

EDITORIAL BOARD 1973

Chairman: Professor A. Napier Boyce

Secretary: Mr. Huw Davies

Business Manager: Mr. Don Henning

Members: Miss M. Nussey

Dr. H. Holmes

Advisers: Mr. M. C. O'Dowd (Anglo-American)

Dr. M. Whitwore Richards (Witwatersrand Council of Education)

Mr. E. Jenkins (English Adviser, T.E.D.)

Mr. F. E. Auerbach (Transvaal Teachers' Association)

Mr. R. Tunmer (University of the Witwatersrand)

Editor: Dr. Brian Rose

SYMPOSIUM IS PUBLISHED BY THE JOHANNESBURG COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

PRINTED BY PACIFIC PRESS (PROPRIETARY) LIMITED, 302 FOX STREET, JEPPE, JOHANNESBURG

CONTENTS

	Page
Editorial	3
What should be the future of Colleges of Education in South Africa? — A. Napier Boyce	6
The retention of teachers in training — H. Holmes	13
The "James report" in retrospect — James of Rusholme	19
Student participation in the Assessment of Courses and lecturing — Robin Lee	24
Gordonstoun — an adventure into education — Don Walton	29
An industrialist looks at the schools — H. H. McGregor	34
Education and training — some problems and trends in an industrial society — C. J. Acton	37
The Influence of Communism on Education — H. Bauchlé	41
Educational strategies for accelerating development in Southern Africa — Franklin Parker	43
Truth about tradition — Brian Rose	49
Some language problems of students at a black university — L. Proctor and N. E. Verschoor	52
The Role of the Parent in Education — Honey Gluckman	59
Teacher as a model — James L. Jarrett	63
The school of tomorrow — what is the teacher's job — Peter Beugger ...	68
The selection of a third language, with specific reference to the value of Latin — Huw Davies	71
An appraisal of the bilingual problem in Canada and South Africa — Sally Ann Kay	74
Book Reviews — Brian Rose	79