

Razeena Lockhat

0501358X

03 June 2019

Corrections for Masters of Medicine final submission as requested by the Postgraduate Committee recommendations

Topic: Effect of transversus abdominis plane block on post-operative morphine consumption in total abdominal hysterectomy patients

Recommendation	Correction
Page 18, 19: spacing before 'doi' number	Spacing removed from references 7, 11, 13, 22, 23, 49, 55
Page 20: reference 27 size not the same	Font size corrected
Page 15 par 3 and Page 61 ref 21: da Silva- replace with capital D	"Da" Silva replaced
Page 81: access date	Page 88: access for reference one given
Page iv: type out NRS in full	NRS replaced with Numeric Rating Scale
List of Tables: remove table on p81	Removed
Page 2: paragraph 1.1.4 3 rd line- reference 9 should be "Brandborg et al (9)	Correction made
The numbering of headings beyond 3 decimal points in Page 6, 7, 9, 10, 15, 16, 76-79	Numbering is in accordance to the Wits Style Guide so has been left as is
Page 10 par 3: no spaces between 20ml and 24hours	Spaces inserted: changed to 20 ml and 24 hours.
Page 10 last paragraph: space between consumption and reference	Space inserted as per recommendation
Page 12: spacing between paragraphs	corrected
Page 14: space between Puddy et al and reference	corrected
Page 15: space between authors and references da Silva with a capital D	Corrected
Page 16: last paragraph and USA and Gasanova et al and ref	Corrected
Page 17: space after 'et al' and reference, space after significant and full stop	Corrected
Page 76: space needed between de Vos and reference	Corrected
	It is widely assumed in the literature that

Incorporation of the importance of the importance of intravenous analgesia

TAP blocks are not the sole form of analgesia and are used as an effective adjunct and is highlighted in the literature review. TAP blocks were emphasised in this study as it is directed to the research question and protocol.