

https://dspace.org/

An evaluation of how the conceptualisation of waste influences separation at source behaviours and waste practices: a case study of Elizabeth Fry Village, Vorna Valley, Midrand South Africa

Dune, Tadiwanashe Chido

2017

http://hdl.handle.net/10539/23563

Dune, Tadiwanashe Chido (2017) An evaluation of how the conceptualisation of waste influences separation at source behaviours and waste practices: A case study of Elizabeth Fry Village, Vorna Valley, Midrand South Africa, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, <http://hdl.handle.net/10539/23563>

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

Interview Protocol –Vorna Valley Residents Association

Position:

WASTE

1. Which words would you use to describe waste or associate with waste?
2. What is the status of residential waste in Vorna Valley?
3. How efficient is waste collection in the area?.
4. Is waste management an issue of concern in Vorna Valley/Midrand? (Please explain)
5. What are some of the problems associated with waste collection in Vorna Valley?
6. Were there any problems/issues/complaints/impacts experienced by residents during the PIKITUP strike? (Please explain)
7. Do you have any suggestions on how waste can be better managed in Vorna Valley?

SEPARATION AT SOURCE

8. Where in Vorna Valley are some of the separation at source programmes active?
9. Are there any resources that encourage participation in separation at source programmes in Vorna Valley?
10. For how long have these programs been operating in Vorna Valley?
11. How would you describe the state of participation by Vorna Valley residents in separation at source programmes?

12. Which factors do you think influence participation by residents in separation at source programmes?

13. What are some of the concerns/issues that have been voiced by residents with regards to separation at source? (If any)

14. What suggestions do you have to enhance participation or create enthusiasm for Vorna Valley residents to participate in separation at source programmes?

15. Are there any benefits associated with separation at source for Vorna Valley? (If yes, what are some of the benefits of separation at source and who benefits?)

16. Are there some challenges faced (or concerns that residents have) when implementing sustainable waste management programmes in Vorna Valley such as separation at source? (If yes, please explain)

Additional info: