No-one has ever done anything significant alone.

Completing this research study would have been impossible without the help, guidance and support of a whole bunch of special individuals. I would therefore like to say a warm and heartfelt thank you to the following people:

- To my family and friends - for your unconditional love and confidence in me!
- To the members of the SAPS Dog Unit Soweto, for opening your hearts and lives to me. Each one of you will always have a special place in my heart.
- To my supervisor, Ms Francine Davies, for sharing my passion for the trauma field and for your encouragement, guidance and support throughout.

Thank you,

Celéste
