I, Ross Esselen 0008099x, am a student registered for the course Master of Architecture [Professional] in the year 2007. I hereby declare the following:

I am aware that plagiarism [the use of someone else's work without permission and/or without acknowledging the original sources] is wrong. I confirm that the work submitted for assessment for the above course is my own unaided work except where I have stated explicitly otherwise. I have followed the required conventions in referencing thoughts, ideas, and visual materials of others. For this purpose, I have referred to the Graduate School of Engineering and the Built Environment style guide. I understand that the University of the Witwatersrand may take disciplinary action against me if there is a belief that this is not my unaided work or that I have failed to acknowledge the source of the ideas or words in my in my own work.

Acknowledgements:

Thanks to my parents for all their love and support. Words can not show how grateful I am.

To Jonathan Noble for calming words of wisdom when I thought I had gotten lost.

To Paul Kotze for your optimism and inspiration when I needed it most.

Thanks to Mohamad Munchi for incredible assistance and guidance.

Thanks to Lone Poulsen and Melinda Silverman for helping me get it right.

Thanks Mike Magner for getting me to think about the practical side of this thesis.

Thanks to Sarah Calburn for making sure I don't contradict my theory in my building.

To Terrance Shacklady for technical advice and letting me abuse your printing facilities.

To the guys in Studio: Gavin 'flippant' Armstrong, Steven 'Irish' Reid, Jen the Law, Cally 'dirty' Olver, the Crazy Orange Boys, Peter 'library' Le Roux, Michelle 'the lady' Zar, Abdullaah 'abstract' Abass and Master Brown!

Thanks to Mathew Wiggett and especially Brett Wilks for the help I needed to do this thesis.

To Irene for your support and love.
