

https://dspace.org/

Representation of woman in fools

Makhema, Mamokuena

2006-11-13T13:20:26Z
http://hdl.handle.net/10539/1649

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ABSTRACT
DEDICATION
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION 1
1.1 Aims of the Study 1
1.2 Rationale 1
1.3 Theoretical Framework 3
1.4 Methodology 9
1.5 Organisation of the Study 10

CHAPTER 2 THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK 12
2.1 Women in Culture 12
2.1.1 Black Women as Cultural Consumers and Cultural Producers 14
2.1.2 Black Women Resisting Representations 15
2.1.3 Black Women as a Social Force 16
2.1.4 How Film Teaches its Audience 19
2.1.5 Feminism and Black Women's Representations 19
2.1.6 Resisting Representations 22
2.1.7 The Oppositional Gaze 23
2.1.8 Matriarchal Power in African Societies 27
2.1.9 African Feminism versus Western Feminism 28
2.1.10 Daughters of the Goddess and Daughters of Imperialism 30

CHAPTER 3 METHODS AND METHODOLOGY 35
3.1 Case Study 37
3.2 Triangulation 38
3.3 Ethno Methodology 39
3.3.1 Observation 39

3.3.2 Interview 40
3.3.3 Focus Group Interviewing 42
3.4 Research Design 43
3.5 Obtaining Permissions 45
3.6 Selecting the Site and Sampling 45
3.7 Using Multiple Sources of Evidence 46
3.8 Using Recording Modes 48

CHAPTER 4 ANALYSIS 49
4.1 Reception Theory 49
4.2.1 Introduction 49
4.2.2 The Dramatic Rise of Reception Theory 50
4.2.3 Perception and the Device 50
4.2.4 Defamiliarisation 52
4.2.5 Production of Meaning 52
4.2.6 The Implied Reader 53
4.2.7 Interpretation and the Search for Meaning 54
4.2 The Spectator for Fools 55
4.3 Analysis of Reader Reception to Fools 58
4.4 Class Differences 67
4.5 Communication Barrier in Fools 69
4.6 Exclusion of Women from Important Matters 71
4.7 Men Representing Women 76

CHAPTER 5 CONCLUSION 80
5.1 Findings 80

APPENDIX 92
BIBLIOGRAPHY 106
WEBSITE MATERIAL 111
FILMOGRAPHY 112