Submission of a supervisor's report

Once a student submits his/her Thesis/Dissertation/Research Report for examination to the Faculty, the supervisor must submit a supervisor's report to the Faculty Registrar. The supervisor's report is not an examiner's report. It will be used by the Faculty Graduate Studies Committee for the quality assurance of supervision, and for insight into the relationship between the Supervisor's assessment and that of the examiners. This report will not be seen by the examiners, but if requested by the student, it will be given to the student along with the examiners' reports, once the examination process is complete. The supervisor's report will be read together with the examiners reports by the chairperson of the GSC.
