Konversasies - Conversations

J. L. DU PLOOY and V. H. VAUGHAN

These conversations have been prepared to help pupils of 13 and 14 in Standard VI who are learning English as a second language. The Afrikaans and English texts are printed on facing pages so that pupils can easily compare and contrast idioms and vocabulary in the two languages. 35c.

Israel In Egypt

BRIAN ROSE

These plays make use of a new approach to Bible teaching for both church and school. Instead of treating them as costumed or stage productions, they are treated as radio plays, and are constructed for dramatic reading without " props." The plays which deal with various events during the exile in Egypt, avoid commitment to particulars of doctrine peculiar to any denomination, but by re-stating ancient truths in a fresh way, make them more real for the young people of today. 65c.

The Dragon Series

J. L. DU PLOOY and V. H. VAUGHAN

King Lear and Macbeth. These two books are especially for students who are taking English as a second language. In the introductions the editors deal with the life of Shakespeare, the Elizabethan theatre, the characters and the sources of the two plays.
King Lear 58c. Macbeth 52c.

Lines Of Action

B. W. ROSE and R. S. JONES

This collection of poems was made for those young people who, gifted in other ways, are not inclined to literary enjoyment. It has always seemed unfortunate that the considerable reserve of straightforward, adventurous verse should remain largely inaccessible to the schools, and that anthologies built up upon the adolescent's own interest in sport, adventure, aeroplanes, animals and such-like should not be easily available. Lines of Action is an attempt to remedy this situation. Line drawings 75c.

Visual Aids

The importance of Visual Education is now widely established. The various collections of Class Pictures and Pictorial Books mentioned here will be of outstanding value to teachers as illustrative material for their lessons, to stimulate the pupils' interest and to increase their knowledge.

Fairy Tale Pictures

E. R. BOYCE

A new series of 24 full-colour plates each showing an important incident from a fairy tale. R5 per set. The Fairy Stories are a companion series to the Fairy Tale Pictures and each book deals with one of the plates. Coloured illustrations, 4 sets of 6 books, 60c. per set.

MacMillan's Needlework Plates and Leaflets

V. M. LEGGE, D. M. BATTY and M. C. LAYCOCK

Needlework Plates. A series of 10 coloured plates (20 x 30). R1.40

Needlework Leaflets. These leaflets can be used in connection with the Needlework Plates or independently. Set 1 Nos. 1-8, 20c. Set 2 Nos. 9-16, 25c.
