

https://dspace.org/

Coaching : an innovative new methodology for occupational social workers?

Dorkin, Maxine

2009-09-07T07:41:53Z
http://hdl.handle.net/10539/7196

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

APPENDIX C: WEB-BASED RESEARCH TOOL

Dear Sir/ Madam

My name is Maxine Dorkin I am a final year MA Social Work student with the School of Social Work, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg. I am currently undertaking research which focuses on coaching in an occupational setting. The purpose of the research is to assess participants, knowledge and interest in the field of coaching. I would like to invite you to fill in an online questionnaire via the below link.

All information obtained from respondents will be treated in strict confidence and no identifying details will be included in the final report. This questionnaire is being distributed via the Wits University website. This is a secure site, all respondents are treated as anonymous and no personal information is kept in the system. As a participant in this study you have the right to withdraw from the study at any point. Please note there are no right or wrong answers. Your contribution to the study will assist in identifying if coaching has a role in occupational social work settings. Findings of this study will be presented at a South African Occupational Social Workers Association (SAOSWA) meeting.

Instructions for completion of the online survey

- Please click on the link below, it will be highlighted then right click on open hyperlink.
- Follow the prompts at the end of each page on the survey.
- Please not there are required questions on pages 1 and 2 of the survey. This means that you will not be allowed to proceed until these questions have been answered.
- Please click finish at the end of the survey to ensure that your responses are saved.

http://uamp.wits.ac.za/surveys/survey.php?sid=28

Kind Regards

Maxine Dorkin