

SYMPOSIUM

A JOURNAL OF EDUCATION FOR SOUTHERN AFRICA

1978 — R3,50

SYMPOSIUM

1978

A JOURNAL OF EDUCATION FOR SOUTHERN AFRICA

The Editorial Board

Professor A N Boyce
Chairman

Mr Huw Davies
Secretary

Mr M Gardiner
Editor

Professor D Cole

Mr E A Davies

Dr J Kromhout

Professor P Hunter

Dr M McKean

Mr A Smurthwaite

CONTENTS

Editorial	2
The role of the teacher in a changing world	3
S Biesheuvel
Education for nationhood in South Africa	7
E H Davies
Education and democracy: challenges facing first-year students	10
K Tober
From college and university to the classroom	12
A N Boyce
Plotting a new course: language studies in teacher-training	18
G Walker
Preparation for accounting and administrative careers	21
D M Price
Pig and pepper: adventures in the field of learning disabilities	23
F Fincham
Music and society: the forgotten relationship	26
C Ballantine
Creativity in music education	36
E Oehrle
Shakespeare and artistic compromise	42
E A Davies
Reading research: some conceptual issues	45
M E Lawrence
Five years on: English-teaching in Black schools	52
H Holmes
How good are the text-books?	54
V Rodseth
Contributors	63

SYMPOSIUM is published by the Johannesburg College of Education and printed by Pacific Press (Pty) Ltd, 302 Fox Street, Johannesburg.

The Editorial Board is responsible for expressed editorial opinion in this issue but not for the individual opinions or views of contributors.