

https://dspace.org/

Co-operative governance - a South African perspective relating to strategic environmental planning

Bieseman, Gudrun

2010-04-12T09:07:40Z
http://hdl.handle.net/10539/7960

Downloaded from a DSpace repository. https://dspace.org/

LIST OF INTERVIEWEES:

From the outset an effort was made to interview officials within all spheres of government, as well as the relevant consultant. Unfortunately there was no participation at the national level due to a lack of interest. Since the EMF is a very localised process and funded by the Provincial government, the information obtained, was sufficient.

The following are the interviewees:

1. Executive Manager: Environmental Planning & Coordination
   Environmental Development Department
   Ekurhuleni Metropolitan Municipality

2. Assistant Director: Enviornmental Planning & Impact Assessment
   Sedibeng District-area
   Gauteng Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Environment

3. Chief Director: Environment, Conservation & Environment
   Gauteng Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Environment

4. Deputy Director: Enviornmental Planning & Impact Assessment
   Ekurhuleni & Sedibeng
   Gauteng Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Environment

5. Assistant Director: Enviornmental Planning & Impact Assessment
   Ekurhuleni & Sedibeng
   Gauteng Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Environment

6. Assistant Manager: Environmental Management, Sedibeng District Municipality

7. Environmental Officer, Lesedi Local Municipality

8. EMF- Project Consultant, Izwelisha