Dear Mrs Mlokothi

Re: Request for Permission to conduct interviews with the Director General (DG), Deputy Director Generals (DDGs) Senior Managers and the middle managers of the DHA on "Leadership development for women at the Department of Home Affairs"

Your research request to conduct interviews with the DG, DDGs, Senior and Middle Managers of the department on "Leadership development for women at the Department of home Affairs" has reference. The Research, Information and Knowledge Management unit acknowledges the above request.

The DHA, through the Research, Information and Knowledge Management unit has approved your request to conduct interviews with the DG, DDGs, Senior and Middle Managers of the department to fulfill the requirements of your research project. The approval is based on your submission of all required documents and the fact that the research will not pose any security risk to the department.

It is our understanding that the interviews will be conducted using the interview guide submitted to the department to ensure that the security of the department is not compromised. Upon completion of your studies, the DHA requests that you furnish the departmental Information Resource Centre with a copy of your research report, which can be shared with the entire departmental staff.

I wish you all the best in your studies.

Regards
