In January 2014 I embarked a journey of a life time, to complete my Masters of Arts in Community-based Counselling Psychology. It has been a long and challenging journey, with many obstacles but overall a rewarding and enriching experience. The completion of my research dissertation would not have been possible without the support, knowledge, and patients of a certain individuals.

First and foremost, I would like to thank my parents and my sister for always believing in me, their love and support, inspired me through tough times and kept me going.

I would like to thank the MACC team for providing me with the knowledge and skills, which allowed me to complete this process.

I would also like to thank my supervisor Dr Vinitha Jithoo, who encouraged me to confront the challenges of completing this dissertation, and who enabled me to achieve more than I thought possible.
